As a recent law school graduate with a deep passion for family law, Kayla Weddle is determined to make a meaningful difference in the lives of our clients. Her journey in the legal field has been marked by dedication and a commitment to justice.

During her time in law school, Kayla actively engaged in the Gender Justice Clinic, where she provided direct representation to clients in a wide range of cases, including family law, immigration, public benefits, and domestic violence. Her hands-on experience and tireless advocacy have equipped her with the knowledge and skills necessary to navigate the complex legal landscape of family law.

Kayla's commitment to the legal profession led her to clerk here at JGL during her third year of law school, where she deepened her understanding of family law and honed her legal expertise. Kayla focuses her practice on various Family Law issues including divorce, child custody and visitation, child and spousal support, and property and asset division.
