Lauren Agresti is an Associate in Joseph, Greenwald & Laake's Civil Litigation practice group. Her work includes litigation matters in state and federal court representing individuals, organizations, and businesses facing complex legal challenges. No matter the issue, Lauren leaves no stone unturned in pursuit of the best possible resolution for her clients.

Prior to joining JGL, Lauren worked at an Am Law 100 firm on complex litigation matters involving pharmaceuticals, vaccines, and medical devices. She has robust experience with multi-district litigation, discovery, expert witnesses, evidentiary issues, and jurisdictional challenges.

Lauren graduated from Georgetown University Law Center in 2016. While at Georgetown, Lauren volunteered at several legal clinics assisting DC residents, served as Editor-in-Chief of the Georgetown Journal of Law & Public Policy, and interned at a major American publishing and financial information firm, where she conducted legal research on FOIA matters, intellectual property disputes, and transactional matters. Lauren received her undergraduate degree in political science, magna cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania in 2013. She is especially passionate about improving the lives of children through volunteer work and advocacy.
