February 12, 2018

Joseph Greenwald & Laake principal Jerry Miller has been elected to serve as a member of the Board of Directors of the Bowie Business Innovation Center (BIC), a diverse entrepreneurial business community where technology, government contracting and other start-up companies in Prince George's county can access mentoring, counseling, networking and technical assistance. The BIC Board of Directors is comprised of strategically selected area entrepreneurs and seasoned business executives. "I am very excited to be a part of the entrepreneurial spirit at BIC and look forward to working with the board as we fulfill our mission to help local entrepreneurs grow their businesses," said Jerry. Bowie BIC is a Maryland nonprofit organization headquartered at the Center for Business at Bowie State University. Jerry's term on the board begins this month and runs through 2020.

Jerry is a principal in Joseph, Greenwald & Laake's Business Services Group, and has nearly 30 years of experience in helping clients large and small tackle the legal challenges of owning and operating a business. In addition to advising clients on a wide range of business issues, including business formation and choice of entity, corporate tax, and employment contracts & related issues, Jerry advises his clients on commercial real estate matters, including leases, purchases and sales.
