The Daily Record Announces Jerry Miller's New BIC Board Position

February 26, 2018

The Daily Record joins in the excitement of the appointment of Joseph Greenwald & Laake principal Jerry Miller to the board of the Bowie Business Innovation Center (BIC). BIC is a diverse entrepreneurial business community where companies in Prince George's county can access mentoring, counseling, networking and technical assistance. The board is comprised of strategically selected area entrepreneurs, seasoned business executives and entrepreneurial resources. BIC serves over 700 entrepreneurs from a variety of industries including healthcare, construction and engineering. The innovation center also helps Bowie State University students with internship opportunities and post-graduate resources.

Jerry is a principal in Joseph, Greenwald & Laake's Business Services Group, and has nearly 30 years of experience in helping clients large and small tackle the legal challenges of owning and operating a business. In addition to advising clients on a wide range of business issues, including business formation and choice of entity, corporate tax, and employment contracts & related issues. Jerry has extensive experience in advising his clients on commercial real estate matters including leases and the purchase and sale of real estate.
