Lauren Agresti speaks at the Maryland Student Legislature

April 20, 2018

On April 14, JGL associate Lauren Agresti proudly represented Joseph Greenwald & Laake on a panel at the Lowe House Office Building in Annapolis discussing careers in law and public policy for student participants in the Maryland Student Legislature program. Topics included choosing a career path, making career changes, and forming mutually supportive relationships with peers and colleagues.

Maryland Student Legislature is a nonprofit program that facilitates a state legislature simulation for college students every year. Maryland Student Legislature has provided an invaluable education in civics and leadership to Maryland's students for more than a quarter of a century. Their alumni have gone on to serve in the Maryland General Assembly, the Governor's Office, work in Congress and the Executive Branch, work across federal agencies, and lead successful careers in law, politics, journalism, civil service, academia, and much more.

Lauren Agresti is an Associate in Joseph, Greenwald & Laake's Civil Litigation practice group. Her work includes litigation matters in state and federal court representing individuals, organizations, and businesses facing complex legal challenges. No matter the issue, Lauren leaves no stone unturned in pursuit of the best possible resolution for her clients.
