Business Law

JGL guides companies through every stage of the business lifecycle. Through formation, financing, and strategic acquisition, to leveraging your exit strategy, we focus on your success and on realizing your distinct commercial goals.

Practical solutions, extraordinary quality, and the highest level of personal attention to your needs drive everything we do. Our advice reflects the critical importance we place on supporting your vision and objectives juxtaposed against industry standards and best practices protocols.

How Our Business Law Attorneys Can Assist You

We advise on entity formation and reorganization, real estate and leasing, contracts and vendor arrangements, employment best practices, tax liabilities, and land use and zoning. We deliver prompt legal solutions, conserve your resources, and mitigate your risk. Our clients are entrepreneurs, privately held and family-owned businesses, corporations, and professional organizations, including medical practices. We also represent home businesses, start-ups, and fast-growth and middle-market companies. We help you thrive in both favorable and challenging economic environments.

Business Contracts

Business contracts establish the rights and responsibilities of everyone involved in an agreement. An experienced business contract attorney can help draft, review, and negotiate agreements, identify potential risks, and resolve disputes when another party fails to meet its obligations.

Learn more about business contracts.

Business Planning

An experienced business lawyer can help ensure that your business is positioned as strongly as can be to grow and proactively avoid unnecessary liability pitfalls.

Learn more about our business planning services.

Business Tax Planning

Tax planning is essential for any business today. A business tax planning attorney can help your business can be best positioned to take advantage of existing tax laws and respond to new ones.

Learn more about business tax planning.

©2026 Joseph Greenwald & Laake, PA

Corporate Business and Tax

At JGL, we regularly advise hundreds of corporations and other business clients on every aspect of managing their businesses.

Learn more about corporate business and tax.

Corporate Governance

Corporate governance establishes the rules and procedures that guide a company's ownership, leadership, and operations. A business attorney can help draft and review governing documents, clarify management responsibilities, address ownership disputes, and ensure the company follows appropriate procedures.

Learn more about corporate governance.

Nonprofit Organizations

Nonprofit organizations face legal responsibilities involving governance, tax-exempt status, contracts, employment, and compliance. An experienced nonprofit attorney can help organizations navigate these responsibilities, address legal challenges, and make informed decisions as they grow and carry out their missions.

Learn more about nonprofit organizations.

Consult a Business Law Attorney

What matters to you, matters to us. You deserve a lawyer who is as invested in the success of your business as you are. JGL is dedicated to providing business clients with the highest level of service and has a proven track record of helping its business clients succeed.

©2026 Joseph Greenwald & Laake, PA