

Business Planning

JGL focuses on supporting your business to grow and prosper. We maximize our talent to ensure the law works for you and your company today and into the future. We support you in managing your operations and driving profits and progress forward.

How Our Business Planning Attorneys Can Assist You

We regularly advise on:

- Formation, operation, and risk management
- Commercial contracts, agreements, and alliances
- Real estate and leasing transactions
- Mergers, acquisitions, and dispositions
- All labor and employment matters
- Intellectual property, including trademarks and copyrights
- Licensing and franchising arrangements
- Tax planning, financing, and debt assumption
- Entity reorganization and restructuring
- Antitrust matters
- Succession planning
- State and federal court litigation support

Consult a Business Planning Attorney

Use your talents and your time to do what you do best, which is to generate business and make profits. Meanwhile our business lawyers will help ensure that your business is protected from unnecessary risks and liabilities.