Administrative Litigation

Whether seeking or defending a professional license, challenging an action taken by the government or an insurer, or protecting your employment rights, JGL will aggressively defend your position across many types of administrative litigation.

We defend your rights in state and federal courts, in alternative dispute resolution settings, and before administrative tribunals, such as the Maryland and Washington, DC professional boards, Office of Administrative Hearings, Motor Vehicle Administration, and the Office of the Insurance Commissioner. We are proven advocates when representing you before federal agencies, such as the:

- Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services
- Department of Commerce
- Department of Education
- Federal Trade Commission
- Food and Drug Administration
- Patent and Trademark Office
- Professional Licensure Defense
- Securities and Exchange Commission
- Department of Veterans Affairs
