

Commercial & Business Litigation

JGL represents companies and individuals in complex and high-stakes commercial disputes. We represent commercial clients in state and federal courts, at the appellate levels, and before a host of administrative agencies.

Whether your claim is large or small, straightforward or complicated, we focus on designing the right strategy and appropriate budget to streamline your chances of success. We resolve business and commercial disputes involving:

- Breach of contract
- Commercial and business torts
- Business collections
- Commercial transactions and contract interpretation
- Corporate, shareholder, and partnership disputes
- Director and officer liability
- Environmental and land use
- Franchise and licensing
- Insurance coverage
- Intellectual property, trade secrets, and unfair competition
- Labor and employment
- Marketing, advertising, and e-commerce
- Professional liability
- Professional malpractice and licensure defense
- Real estate, leasing, and construction
- Restrictive covenants and non-compete agreements
- Tax and ERISA
- Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) claims
