

Grand Jury Proceedings

Prosecutors use grand jury proceedings to gather information about potential crimes. Through grand juries, state and federal prosecutors subpoena documents and compel witnesses to testify to gather information about potential crimes.

If you are an individual or business that has received a state or federal grand jury subpoena, we can advise you on your rights in this process, take steps to determine if you are a target of the investigation or just a witness, and communicate with prosecutors about the subpoena.

Consult a Grand Jury Proceedings Lawyer

At JGL, our firm's defense lawyers know how to effectively handle grand jury proceedings so jurors hear more than the version of facts presented by the prosecution.