

Estates & Trusts

Developed over 50 years of practice, JGL's legacy of trust will protect and preserve your wealth. Our JGL Estates & Trusts team inspires client confidence. Many of our clients are referred to us by previous clients and their families.

We advise on wealth preservation, planning and administration, including wills, trusts, asset structuring, tax law, probate, trust administration, guardianships, will contests, and complex fiduciary litigation. In fact, our lawyers have been appointed by Maryland judges to represent estates that have been previously mismanaged. We can also navigate you through recouping estate assets that have been misused, as well as represent you in settling tax liabilities with the IRS.

Our advice is designed to achieve your distinct objectives. We take pride in going the extra mile to identify and mitigate the potential for unforeseen tax obligations and latent litigation risk. We are fluent in the financial, tax, business, and accounting components that comprise your wealth. We bring particular strength to advising on business succession planning. Our experience includes:

- All estates & trust tax matters
- Complex wealth preservation and planning
- Contested estate litigation
- Estate planning
- Fiduciary litigation
- Probate
- Succession and control planning for businesses, important family assets and other matters
- Trust administration
