

Keep A Date with the African Art Museum of Maryland (AAMM)

As it invites you to spend an enriching Sunday afternoon with light refreshments, music, recent donations of art, opportunities to meet the donors, merchants, supporters, and it's FREE!

On Sunday, March 12, 2017

2pm – 5pm

at the

African Art Museum of Maryland

11711 E. Market Place

Maple Lawn Community

Fulton, MD 20759 (Howard County)

Exhibit - African Art: from the
Collector's Collection III

Visit the Vendors

- Alphadi:
Khadidja Seidnaly
- Nablaa:
Dolly Barnes
- Floral Designs
By Delores
- Gifts from India
Honey Kohli
- Tutu's Storybooks
Maimunah Morah

- ☆ In the observance of Women's History month, enjoy the stimulating Women's Forum. Four high-profile women, reflective of three continents will present to the audience their roles in the promotion of peace, progress, and prosperity in the 21st Century.
- ☆ Adults will read from award-winning books about Africa to the youth in attendance.

Seating is limited. Reservations are required by March 7, 2017.

Please call 301-490-6070

Email:

africanartmuseumofmd@verizon.net

Two names per call are allowed

Corporate Sponsor

JOSEPH GREENWALD
& LAAKE, PA

Housepost
Nigeria
Carver
Lamid, Fakeye
Gift of:
Mr. Kenneth Bache

11711 East Market Place, Fulton, Maryland 20759 – Phone/Fax: 301-490-6070
Email: africanartmuseumofmd@verizon.net – Website: www.africanartmuseum.org

Contact: Doris Ligon – 301-490-6070